

MKSSS's Smt. Hiraben Nanavati Institute of Management & Research for Women (HNIMR)

Report on Plastic Waste Free Awareness Campaign

Date: 14.09.2019

MKSSS's Smt. Hiraben Nanavati Institute of Management and Research for Women is always to be proactive to create an awareness on various social and environmental issues. In association with Sagar Mitra, an NGO working in the Plastic Waste Awareness, organised a campaign on plastic waste for the students from campus and outside. 39 students from the campus and outside participated in the same.

The session was delivered by Mr. Vinod Bodhankar. Mr. Vinod Bodhankar is the co-founder-director of Sagarmatha Abhiyaan - an Initiative, dedicated to plastic waste management at the school, housing society, village, and city levels. He also serves as the convenor of the Indian Peninsula River Basins Council, Jalbiradari, a network of river teams from 11 states and 3 union territories. Additionally, he is a founder and director of Vishwasankruti Ashram for ethical training and leadership. Mr. Vinod has been honored with the 'Jal Rishi Samman' in 2017 at the National Convention on Droughts and Floods.

