Report:

HNIMR's Community Development Cell organized a program to commemorate the 150th Birth Anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda on 15th November 2025 in the Auditorium. A total of 166 students were present for the program.

The purpose of this initiative was to honor the remarkable contributions of Bhagwan Birsa Munda, a revered tribal leader who fought against British oppression and worked tirelessly for the rights and dignity of tribal communities. The program aimed at instilling values of bravery, social responsibility, cultural pride, and resistance against exploitation.

The session included a brief presentation on the early life, struggles, and achievements of Bhagwan Birsa Munda, followed by discussions on his role in mobilizing tribal communities and initiating socio-religious reforms. Students shared their reflections on leadership, courage, and the importance of safeguarding indigenous heritage. Faculty members emphasized the relevance of Birsa Munda's teachings in promoting equality, justice, and empowerment in modern society.

Under the guidance of Dr. Priyanka Singh, Director HNIMR, Dr. Kamalakar Munde and Prof. Ranjana Gogate coordinated the program.
