Report:

The Community Development Cell (CDC) of MKSSS's Smt. Hiraben Nanavati Institute of Management and Research for Women (HNIMR) observed Constitution Day on 26th November 2025 in the institute campus. The event was held to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and to promote awareness about fundamental rights, duties, and constitutional values among students.

The program began with a brief introduction highlighting the historical significance of the day and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's contribution as the chief architect of the Constitution. This was followed by a collective reading of the Preamble by students, faculty members, and staff, reaffirming their commitment to justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

Students also participated in discussions and reflections on constitutional values, citizen responsibilities, and the importance of democracy in shaping modern India. The session encouraged students to appreciate the constitutional framework and understand its relevance in everyday life. Under the guidance of Dr. Priyanka Singh, Director HNIMR, Dr. Kamlakar Munde and Prof. Ranjana Gogate coordinated the program.
